

A Chronological Chart of World History

(Using year spans provided by the Bible and assuming the start of Solomon's Temple construction was 966 B.C. ±)

The LORD merely spoke, and the heavens were created. He breathed the word and all the stars were born. He gave the sea its boundaries and locked the oceans in vast reservoirs. Ps. 33:6,7

Creation Week

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

1 And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness. God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." And there was evening, and there was morning – the first day.

2 And God said "Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water." So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it. And it was so. God called the expanse "sky." And there was evening, and there was morning – the second day.

3 And God said, "Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place and let dry ground appear." And it was so. God called the dry ground "land," and the gathered waters he called "seas." And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, "Let the land produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds." And it was so. The land produced vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening, and there was morning – the third day.

4 And God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark seasons and days and years, and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth." And it was so. God made two great lights—the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars. God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth, to govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good. And there was evening and there was morning – the fourth day.

5 And God said, "Let the water teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky." So God created the great creatures of the sea and every living and moving thing with which the water teems, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. An God saw that it was good. God blessed them and said, "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds increase on the earth." And there was evening, and there was morning – the fifth day.

6 And God said, "Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creatures that move along the ground, and wild animals, each according to its kind." And it was so. God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground."

So God created man in his own image,
In the image of God he created him;
Male and female he created them.

God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground."

Then God said, "I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air and all the creatures that move on the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food." And it was so.

7 God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning – the sixth day.

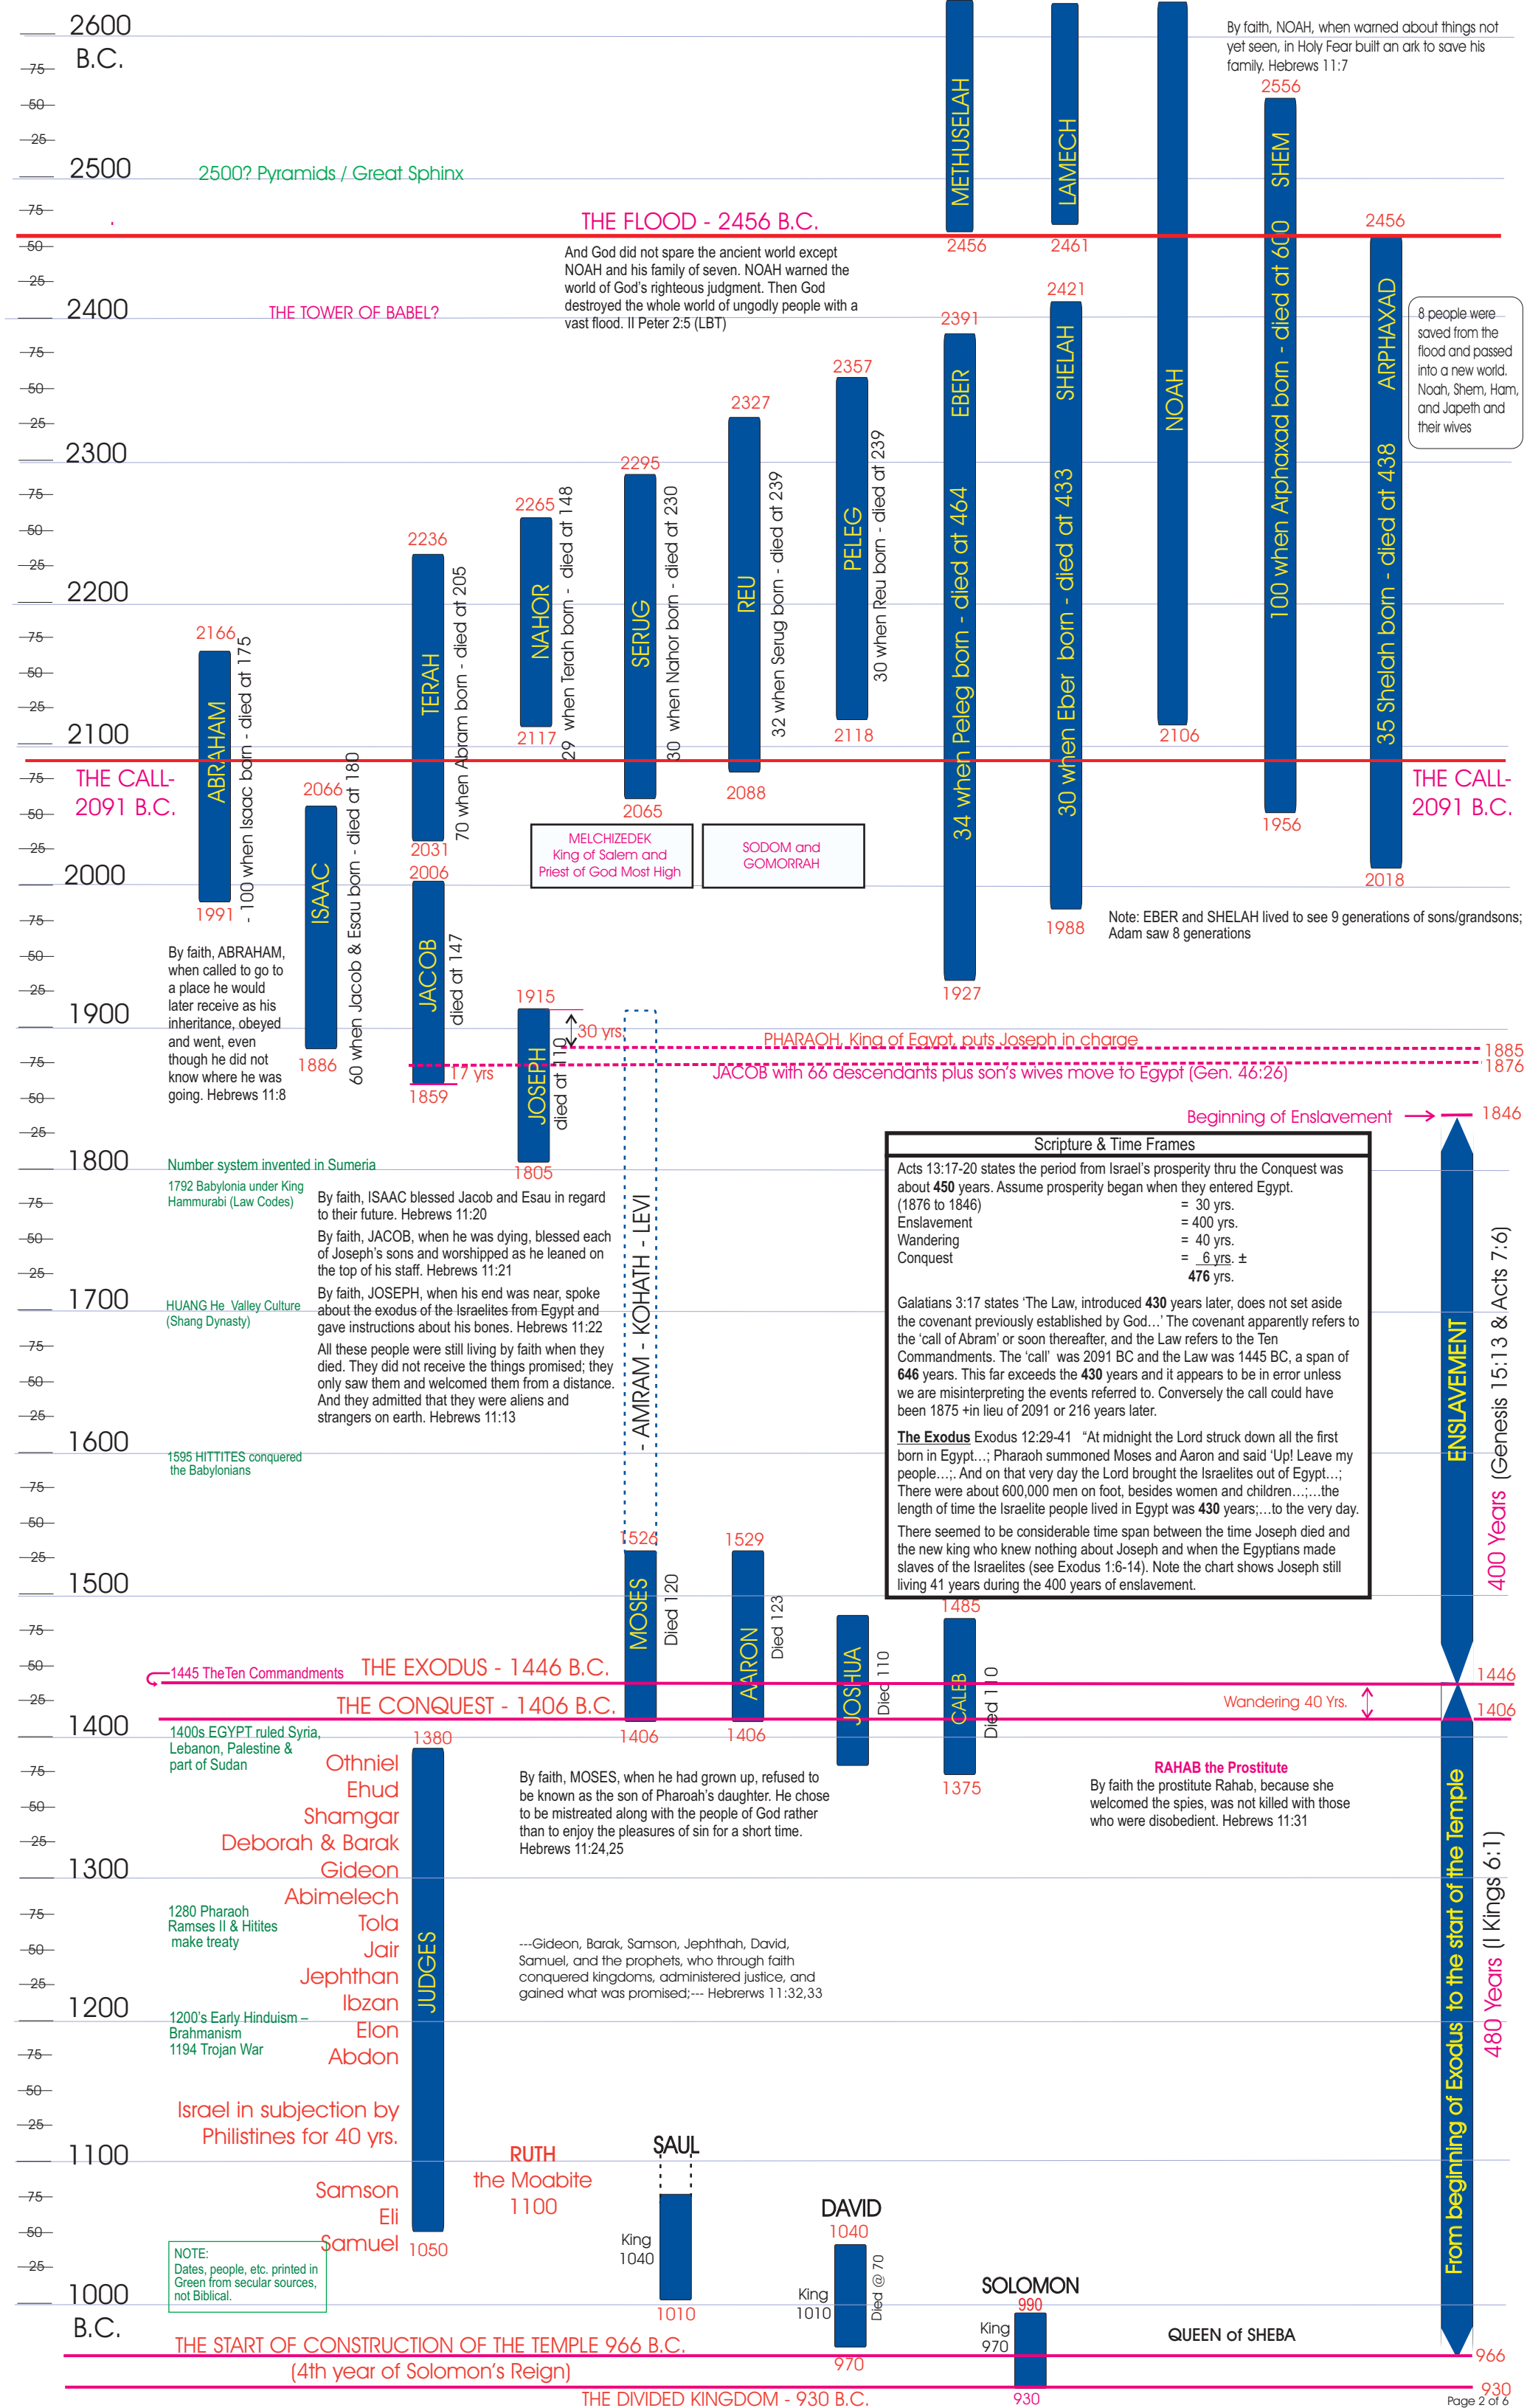

Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

7 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work. And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created.

The author of these charts is convinced that God created the Universe in six 24-hour periods about 6,000 years ago. However, the shown time-lines and dates have some inconsistencies and contradictions that humanly can't be reconciled. In addition, most conservative scholars believe the flood and the beginning extend further in the past than shown. However, their dates are speculative; of course, no one can prove any date. I assume that God has revealed what He wants us to know and that the Bible remains our most authoritative source.

By faith, NOAH, when warned about things not yet seen, in Holy Fear built an ark to save his family. Hebrews 11:7

THE FLOOD - 2456 B.C.

And God did not spare the ancient world except NOAH and his family of seven. NOAH warned the world of God's righteous judgment. Then God destroyed the whole world of ungodly people with a vast flood. II Peter 2:5 (LBT)

THE TOWER OF BABEL?

THE CALL - 2091 B.C.

THE CALL - 2091 B.C.

Scripture & Time Frames
Acts 13:17-20 states the period from Israel's prosperity thru the Conquest was about 450 years. Assume prosperity began when they entered Egypt. (1876 to 1846)	= 30 yrs.
Enslavement	= 400 yrs.
Wandering	= 40 yrs.
Conquest	= 6 yrs. ±
	476 yrs.
Galatians 3:17 states 'The Law, introduced 430 years later, does not set aside the covenant previously established by God...' The covenant apparently refers to the 'call of Abram' or soon thereafter, and the Law refers to the Ten Commandments. The 'call' was 2091 BC and the Law was 1445 BC, a span of 646 years. This far exceeds the 430 years and it appears to be in error unless we are misinterpreting the events referred to. Conversely the call could have been 1875 +in lieu of 2091 or 216 years later.
The Exodus Exodus 12:29-41 "At midnight the Lord struck down all the first born in Egypt...; Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said 'Up! Leave my people...; And on that very day the Lord brought the Israelites out of Egypt...; There were about 600,000 men on foot, besides women and children...;...the length of time the Israelite people lived in Egypt was 430 years;...to the very day. There seemed to be considerable time span between the time Joseph died and the new king who knew nothing about Joseph and when the Egyptians made slaves of the Israelites (see Exodus 1:6-14). Note the chart shows Joseph still living 41 years during the 400 years of enslavement.

400 Years (Genesis 15:13 & Acts 7:6)

480 Years (I Kings 6:1)

From beginning of Exodus to the start of the Temple

By faith, ABRAHAM, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. Hebrews 11:8

By faith, ISAAC blessed Jacob and Esau in regard to their future. Hebrews 11:20

By faith, JACOB, when he was dying, blessed each of Joseph's sons and worshipped as he leaned on the top of his staff. Hebrews 11:21

By faith, JOSEPH, when his end was near, spoke about the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt and gave instructions about his bones. Hebrews 11:22

All these people were still living by faith when they died. They did not receive the things promised; they only saw them and welcomed them from a distance. And they admitted that they were aliens and strangers on earth. Hebrews 11:13

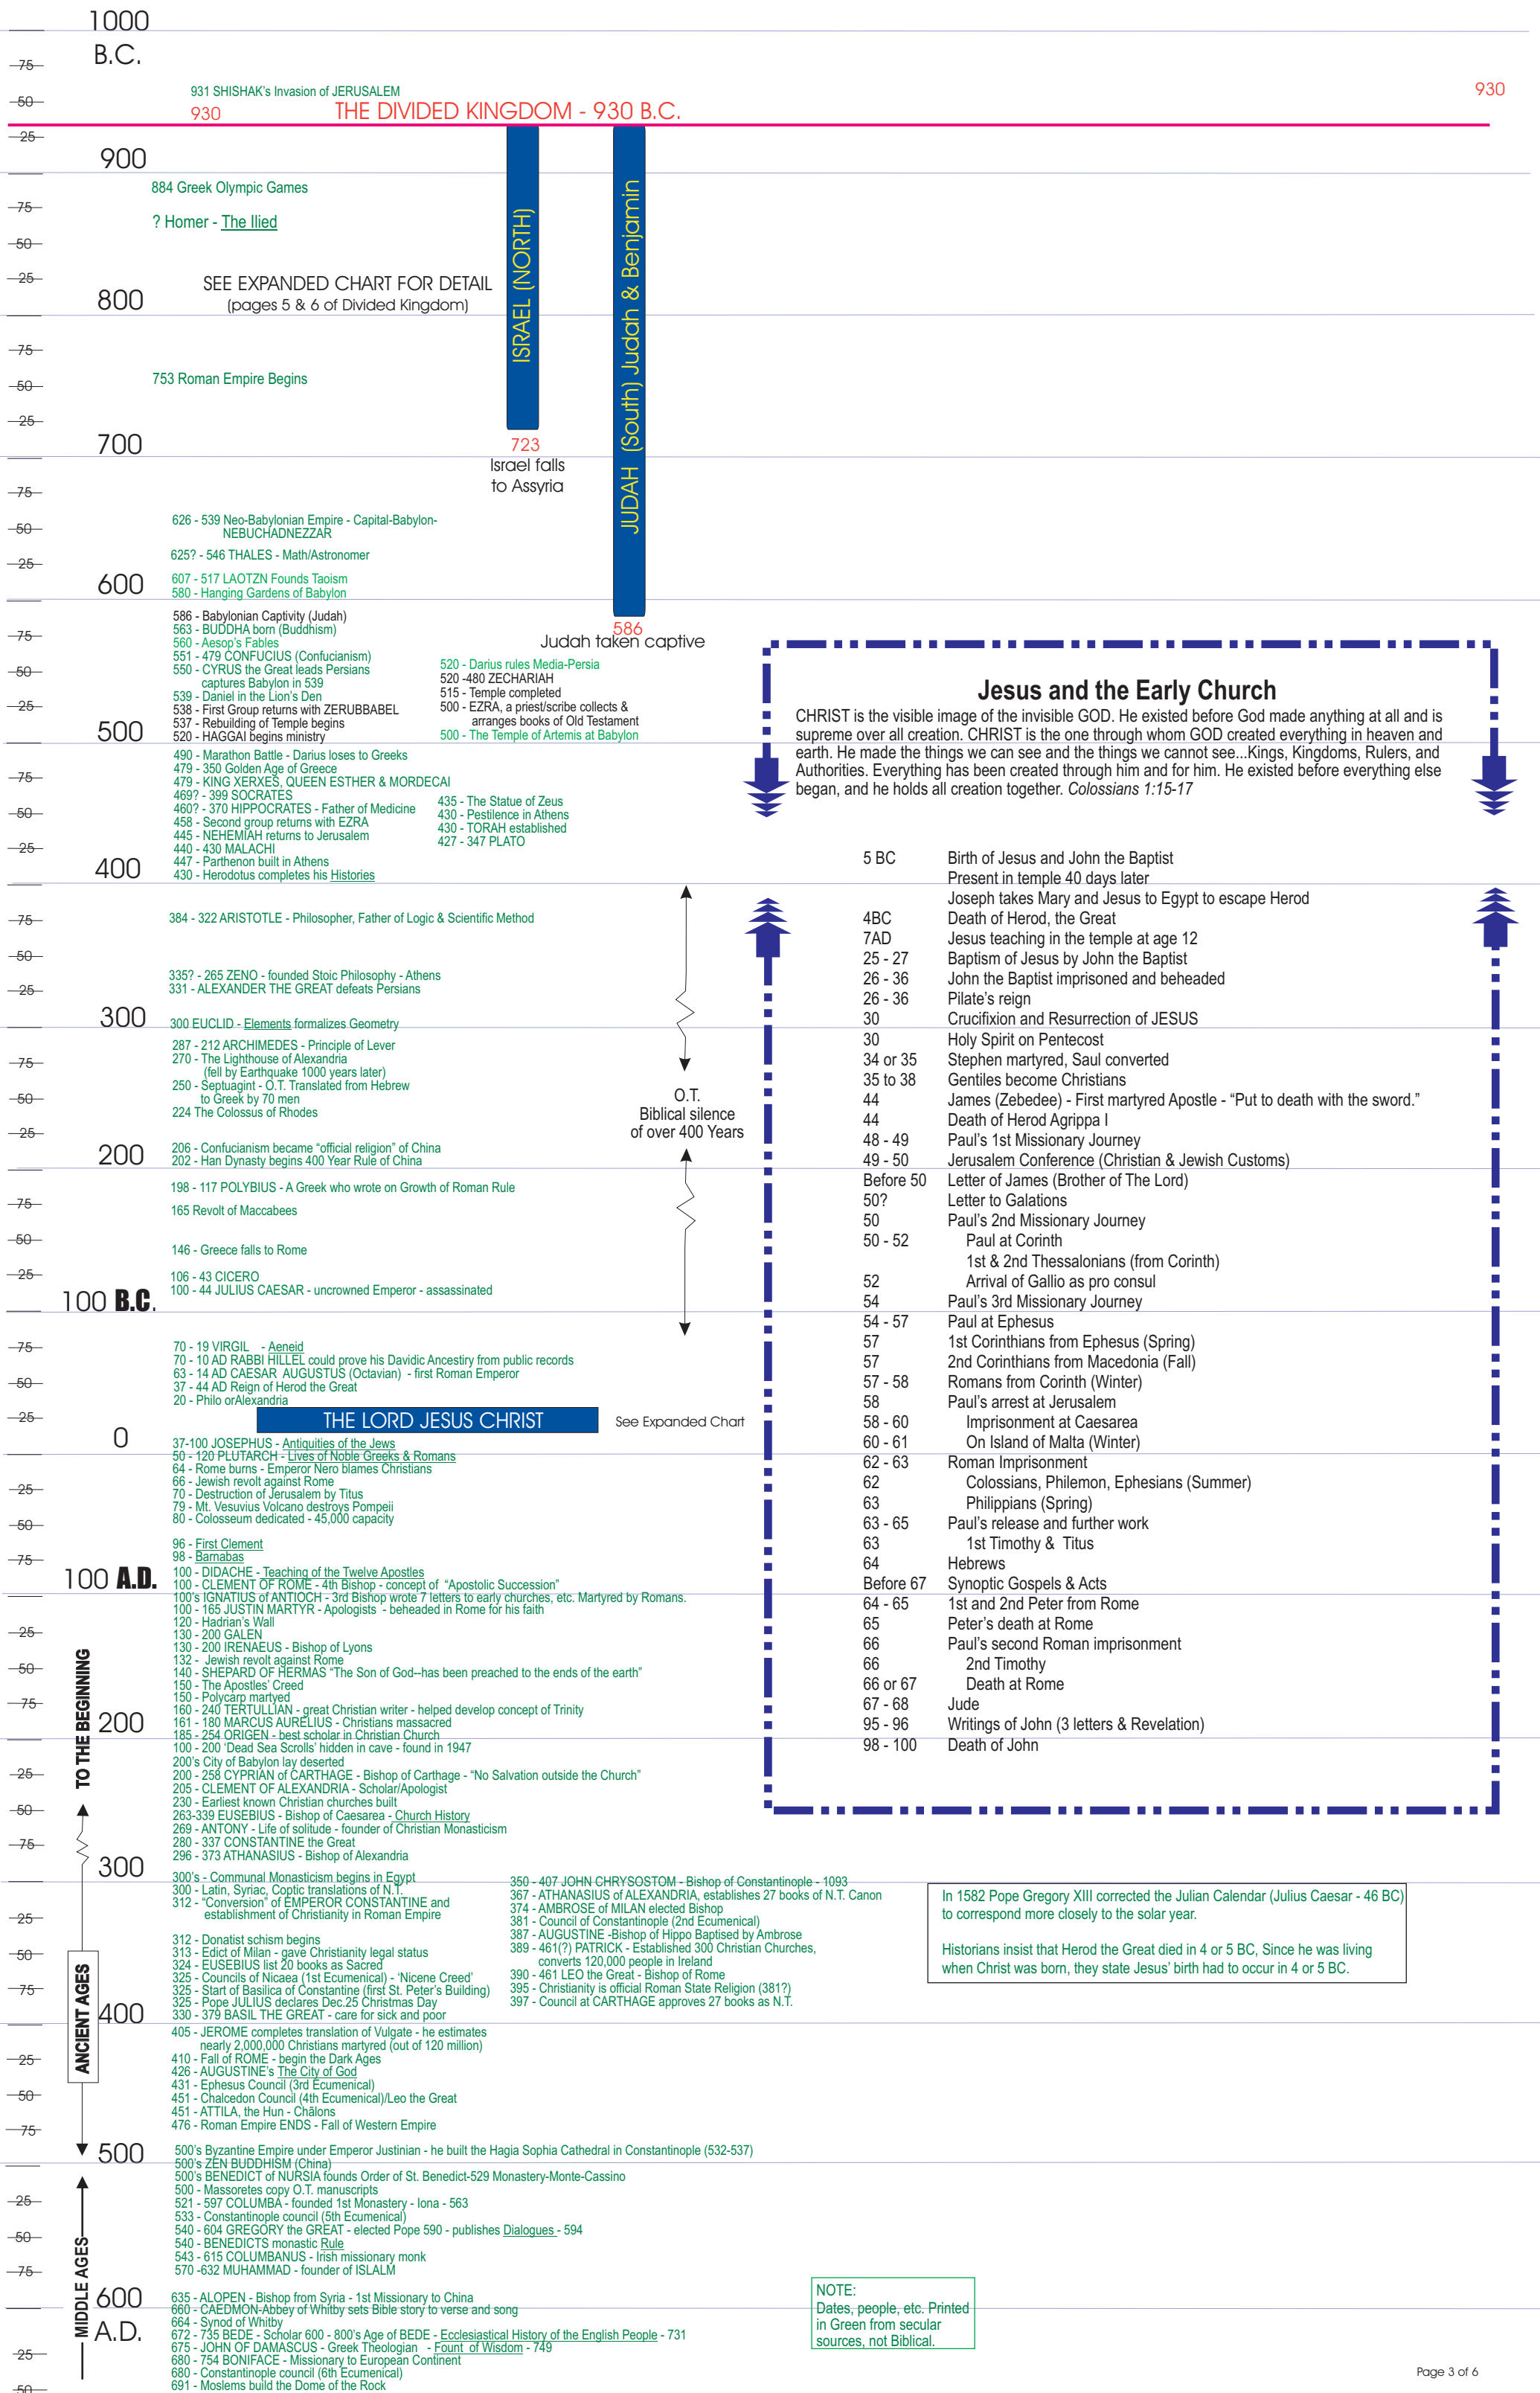

By faith, MOSES, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a short time. Hebrews 11:24,25

---Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets, who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, and gained what was promised;--- Hebrews 11:32,33

RAHAB the Prostitute
By faith the prostitute Rahab, because she welcomed the spies, was not killed with those who were disobedient. Hebrews 11:31
